

Can I Pull My Credit Report From My Credit Reporting Service During the Credit Repair Process?

If you're wondering if you can pull your credit report during the credit repair process, then this article is for you!

Credit monitoring can do a lot to help you know where your credit stands at any given moment, especially during the credit repair process.

The best way to know where your credit stands is by accessing your own reports.

Therefore, the answer to your question is an astounding yes!

You can request a new credit report every 30-35 days using your credit monitoring service account.

Again, you can pull one report every 30-35 days.

Still need help? Visit Accelerator Week 1 DIY Credit Repair

Related Articles

Can I use a credit monitoring service other than *www.100pfcreditcheck.com*?

Tags: Credit monitoring, How to pull credit reports, Access credit reports, How to find out where my credit stands, Where does my credit stand